

OFFER YOUR CLIENTS A BETTER WAY TO DIVORCE MEDIATION: The saner, sensible approach

A non-adversarial divorce has emotional and financial benefits. It protects children while saving money and time.

When mediation makes sense, trust Divorce Mediation Professionals. A law firm with over 30 years' experience, impeccable credentials and a combination of legal and mental health professionals exclusively practicing divorce mediation, we are sensitive to the unique needs of your clients.

And, because we know that mental health professionals play a vital role in the outcome of divorce, we encourage our clients to establish and maintain a supportive therapeutic relationship.
